Reaching for the Future

Our theme is based on hands. We have illustrated different hands carrying out various activities.

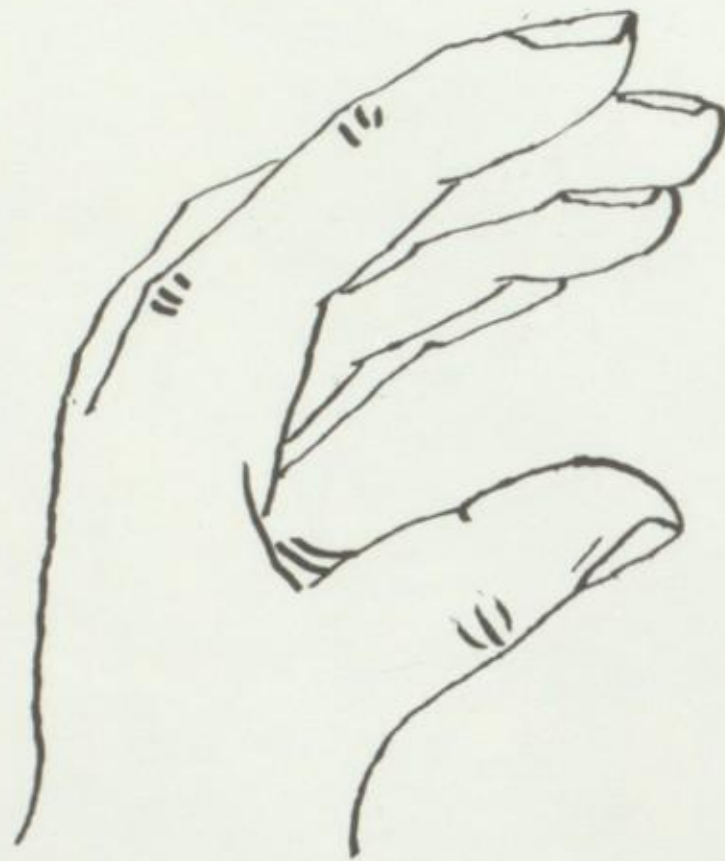

When we entered Catskill High School, we walked up the path that leads to the school with our hands clenched in determination. We were determined to procure as much knowledge as was offered to us.

As the years went by, our hands began to unclench and reach out.

Finally, we became seniors. Our hands were outstretched and still reaching. These open hands wanted to give to the world what they had learned.

Now as we graduate, we walk down the road that leads us away from Catskill High School and on toward our future.

*To You, Mr. Crandall,
We Dedicate Our Rip Van Winkle*

As we, the class of 1966, reminisce about our high school days, you, Mr. Crandall, shall comprise a vital part of our many memories. We wish to dedicate our yearbook to you, for without your valuable assistance during our last three years we never could have functioned so well. We shall never forget the way you gave so unselfishly of your energy, advice and time to make our Class Car wash, Junior Prom, and Spaghetti Supper so successful. You have inspired us in all our projects and have helped us to be more ambitious individuals. It is with great sincerity and appreciation that we dedicate our yearbook to you.

Seniors

Our Leaders Past

For our Freshman year we elected the very capable Jerry Liepshutz to lead our class as President. Laurel Haines was chosen as Vice-President; Gretchen Binder our efficient Secretary; Valerie Pereira was our Treasurer and Susan Willt our Student Council Representative. Mrs. Larsen was our advisor.

In our Sophomore year we re-elected Jerry as President, Val as Treasurer, and Sue for Student Council. We added Carole Schmitt, a well-chosen Vice-President and Jeanne Calcagno as Secretary. Mr. Crandell and Mrs. Wormuth are our new advisors.

For our most important and busiest year we elected Gregory Jones to lead our class as President. Laurel Haines as a very worthy Vice-President; Leslie Van Deusen was elected as our Secretary. Again Val and Sue were elected Treasurer and Student Council Representative, respectively. Mr. Crandell and Mrs. Wormuth are our class advisors.

Our Leaders Now

For leading our class through its final year at C.H.S. we chose Paul Schneider, president; Gretchen Binder, vice president; Jeanne Calcagno, secretary; JoAnn Connors, treasurer; and Susan Willt, S.C. representative.

With the help of these capable leaders, our class has realized much success in our magazine sale, spaghetti supper, and our Senior Banquet.

Without the help of these ambitious people and Mr. Crandall and Mrs. Wormuth, our class advisors, this last year at C.H.S. could not have been so profitable.

Senior Activities

Mr. Hubinsky attempts to illustrate the use of dimensions to our "future Rembrandts." From left to right, Marie Avitto, Jane Gavigan, Mr. Hubinsky, Paul Schneider, Pam Brown.

As Mr. Stickles explains the economic principle of supply and demand, Carol Schmidt, Gretchen Binder, Roy Moon, Brian Crowe, and Barbara Hartman look on and try to read the graph which illustrates this theory.

As Linda Atkins diagrams the election configuration of the silicon atom, Linda Benfatto, Sue Willt, and Camelia Plaza read the atomic chart and Mr. Beede wonders if any of us will be among the future chemists of America.

If at First You Don't Succeed

Although none of us plan to become singing nuns, we certainly can have fun singing French songs under the capable leadership of Mr. Myshrall and the comical accompaniment of Bill Conine. From left to right: Mr. Myshrall, Leslie Van Deusen, Linda Brescia, Bill Conine.

Mrs. Aldrich explains the conjugation of a third year Latin verb to our Latin scholar, Jeanne Calcagno.

Hard at Work

In Intermediate Algebra Mr. Muzey illustrates the unique surface area of a cone to Mary Margaret Bergamini, Ray Thurreson, and Laurel Haines while Leonard Schaefer looks on in mathematical bewilderment.

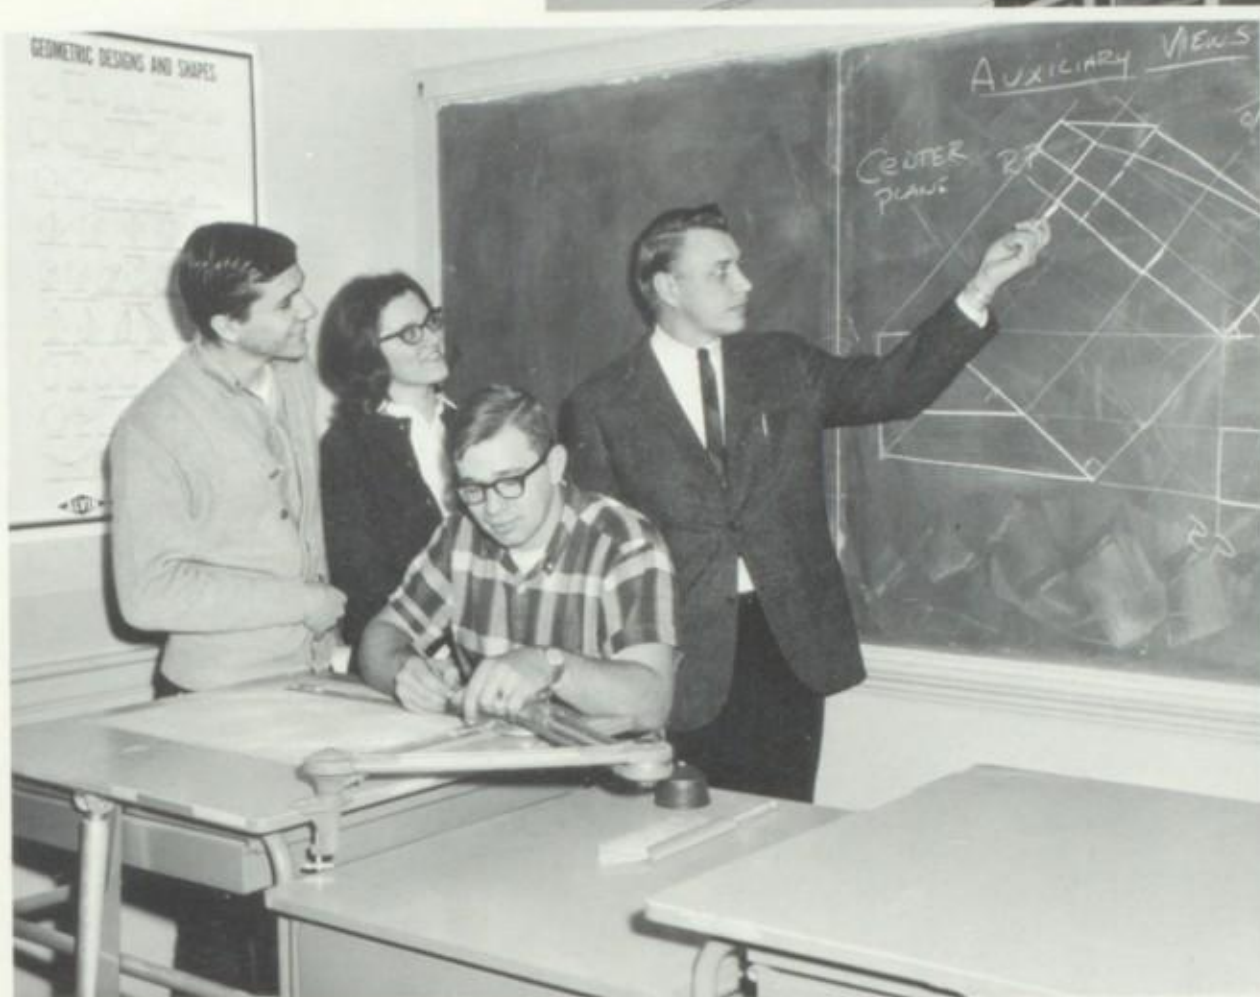

Mr. Stark, our helpful guidance counselor, shows Robert Young a few of the many army occupations while Robert Peloke stands by and wonders what future career he should pursue.

As Mr. Stickles agrees with Shep Ford's and Gladys Karlander's interpretation of one of the basic constitutional amendments, Wayne Kitchen and Charles Welsh look on while John Luzeckis wonders on what grounds they reached that conclusion.

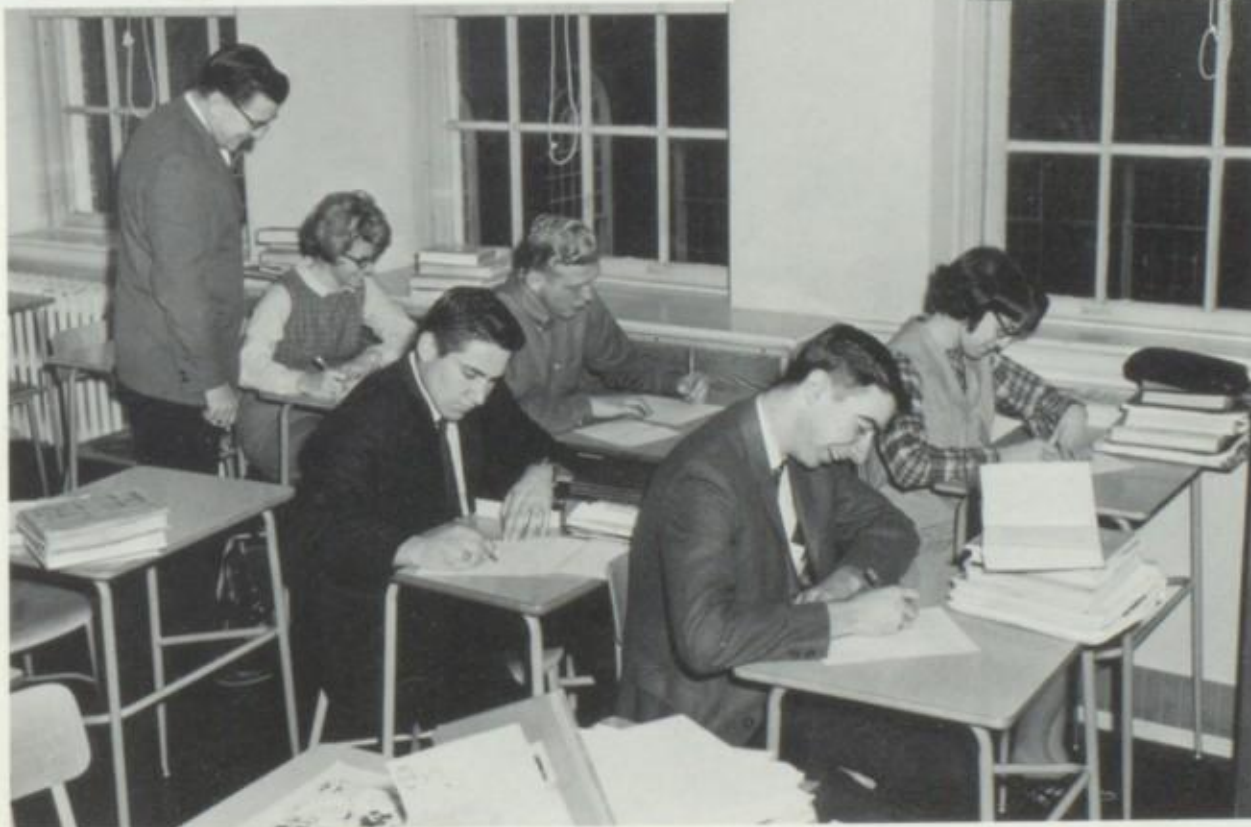

Practice Makes Perfect

The Shorthand I class, under the direction of Mrs. Mower, is designed to teach students how to apply the use of Shorthand in the business world of today. In this picture Donna Lorton, Charlene Van Vechten, Valerie Pereira, and Nancy Jeune are shown taking dictation.

During a study of auxiliary views, Mr. Turek explains the steps in the projection of a slanted surface to Kathy Lennon and Henry Weiss. Gunther Stegmann is involved with another problem at his desk.

This looks like a test! But English IV isn't all tests. Phil Pelham, Mike Profera, Sharon Young, Louie Jeune, and Vicky Wase seem to be enjoying (?) this test.

A Word to the Wise

Here L. Christman, J. Gulle, Mrs. Wormuth, D. Adsit, F. Bickelhaupt and J. Desco are shown reading one of the most important chapters studied in Homemaking V.

"That's gold!" Mr. Crandall says, while John Lissandrello, Deb Klein, and Richard Pickens all nod their heads in agreement.

In the boy's opinion, Miss Budini's personal typing class is the most interesting class of the day. Here Miss Budini shows Bruce Egger how to set up a business letter while Don Holden, Paula Lynn, and Greg Jones practice their timed writings.

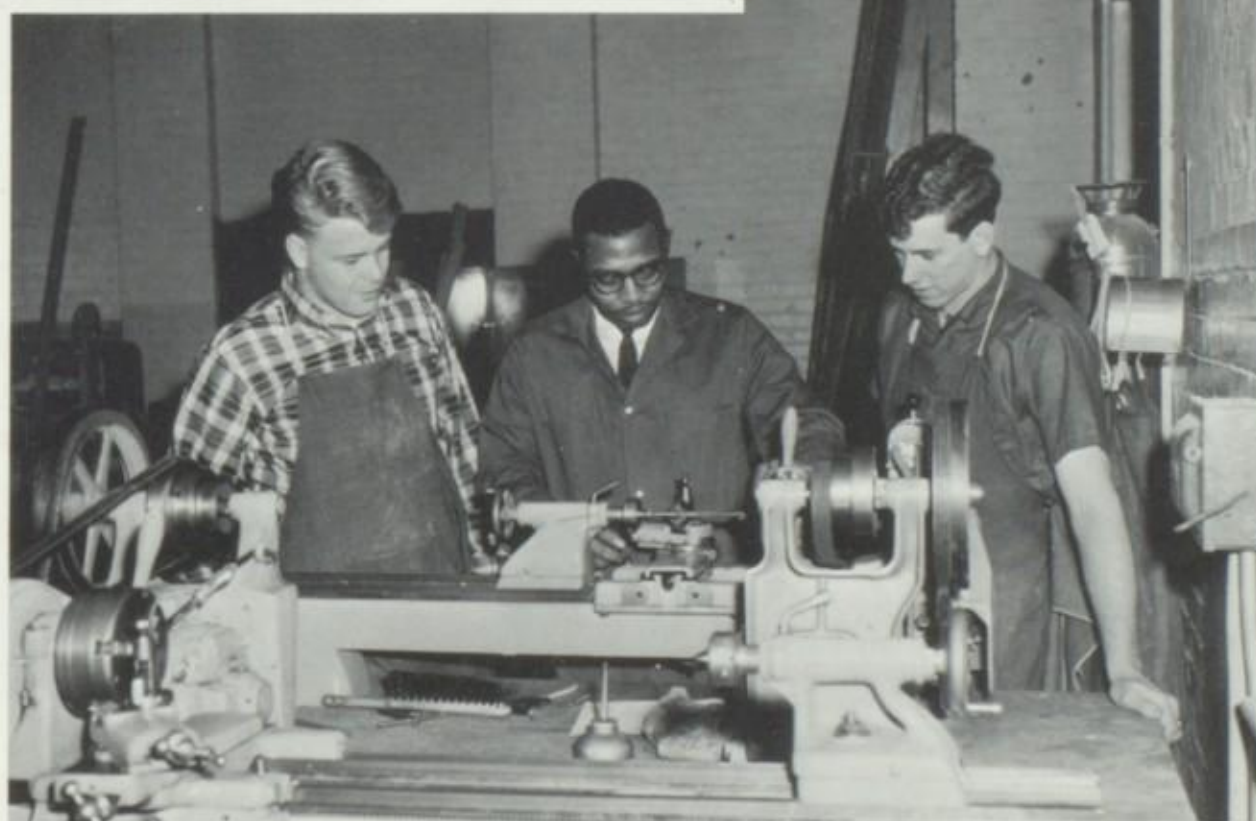

Live and Learn

To test for radiation a geiger counter is sometimes used. Here Ken Kepel and Bill Palmer show Pete Hawthorne, Roger Lane, and Don Decker how it works. Mr. Beede, Physics instructor, looks on to make sure that all runs smoothly.

Mrs. Mott is shown pointing out one of the main principles studied in Business Law to Gerald Smith as Dave Heath, Ronnie Jones, and Peter White listen carefully.

All Work and No Play . . .

A senior and her locker!

The annual C.H.S. Book Bazaar attracts many students. Claretta Gray, Joann Connors, and Nancy Ward browse during a free period.

Don Gardner and Brian Post attempt to resolve a chord as Mr. Aldrich advises them.

Maybe We Weren't Barrymores, but We Had Fun

A successful play, filled with fun and laughter, is certainly worth numerous moments of apprehension and weeks of hard work. Although our time was limited, we thought that first opening night would never arrive. When November 6 did come, we began to experience our first moments of stage fright.

The cast waits nervously backstage, just hoping that the lines they have drilled, day after day, will be remembered. The characters take their places. The curtain rises and it is now that the many lines, details, and instructions must be kept in mind. Much to our surprise, everything goes just as planned until the third act. Our star, Jerry Liepshutz, has a complete change to make in twenty seconds. Heavens, Joe's girl friend, Betty, appears with one of the socks Joe should be wearing! Now, where is Mr. Jordon? The characters on stage are left in total darkness, waiting for the lights to come on once again. The waiting seems like an eternity for those who have to ad-lib. What we're not aware of is the fact that Donny has to have a complete make-up change!

One of the best plays in the history of C.H.S., could not have been our fortune, if it had not been for the many students, and faculty members that helped us. There will always be fond memories of Mr. Myshrall's fine directing. Again, our many thanks.

Joe, Betty, and Julia. "Two's a company, but three's a crowd."

"Well, I got my drink; and here's yours, and if the other one disappears I'm taking a taxi to the funny-farm!"

"I tell you I'm in the pink!
Murdock got the bullet!"

Our Junior Prom was one of the events we looked forward to most eagerly during our high school years. After much preparation and confusion, we were finally ready for the big night. Decorations were all in place, refreshments were made, and students arrived dressed as if they hadn't been in school all day!

As we walked under the arbor, "Love Makes the World Go Round" seemed to come to life. Our various countries represented included France, Hawaii, Japan, and Holland.

The music of the Tuxedo Four added the final touch to make a most memorable evening.

D. Klein, L. Benfatto, Queen-G. Binder,

OUR KING AND QUEEN

All our girls looked like queens as they danced in this beautiful atmosphere.

To help fill our treasury we sold magazines in the Fall of our senior year. In the picture to the left, Greg Jones is seen checking the chart of our progress and skill as salesmen. After much perseverance, we finally reached our goal and rewarded the three top salesmen. Gretchen Binder, Linda Atkins and Philip Pelham, our winners, are shown in the picture above.

Although the senior year is not all play and no work, even the work can be fun if everyone lends a hand to lighten the load. In the picture above, our famous "Chef Boy-ar-Dees", Henry Weiss, Cy Jones, Gretchen Binder, and Vicky Wase are shown in action at our spaghetti supper. It appears that the people to the right know good spaghetti when they taste it, or should we wait to see how they feel tomorrow?

Our Perseverance Led to Success

As the time to produce our own yearbook arrived, we soon realized that the task of editing a well written book was not as easy as it had appeared. Many hours of hard work and co-operation were required to successfully meet each new deadline. Pictures had to be taken layout arrangements had to be completed, copy was to be written, and yearbooks had to be sold. Although the salesmen, staff, and editors worked together diligently to produce a yearbook worth having, this could not have been accomplished without the capable direction of our advisor, Miss McGrath. Miss McGrath gave unselfishly of her time to benefit us. We would like to extend special thanks to our well known artist, Paul Schneider, for the many hours he spent illustrating our theme throughout the yearbook. We are grateful to Mrs. Mower and her Secretarial Practice class for their assistance in the production of the Rip Van Winkle.

The Seniors, unaware that they are being watched, apparently find the Pep Rally very amusing as well as spirited.

"Isn't it a beauty!" exclaims Bill Conine to Gretchen Binder and Brian Post. Many of us heard about Bill's new Mustang (with GT option) for so long that when it arrived we couldn't believe it.

Deb Klein and Don Holden, members of the yearbook staff, work diligently to complete the lay-out material for our deadline.

Louie Jeune points out the events of the Week to Nancy Jeune, Sharon Van Dyke and Dorothy Adsit.

This picture will bring back many memories, for it was very often that Laurel Haines and Bill Palmer sat on the garbage can in the front hall and "kibitzed" between periods.

Wally Weather, commonly known as Mr. Crandall, prepares to swing his barometer and complete his daily weather report.

Here we see the many different phases of our memorable spaghetti supper. Greg Jones eats his spaghetti like a real Italiano, Brian Crowe and Roy Moon tackle the dirty dishes like experienced dishwashers, and Mr. Crandall makes believe he is Chef Boy-ar-dee.

Our "three stooges," Bruce Egger, Bill Conine, and Paul Schneider take a few minutes to discuss a very important magazine article.

Jeanne Calcagno and Deb Klein, our efficient P. A. Announcers, are busy reading the morning announcements.

Although they are busy eating lunch, Jeanne Calcagno, Sharon Van Dyke, Vicky Wase, and Carol Schmitt take enough time out to show that they are not camera-shy.

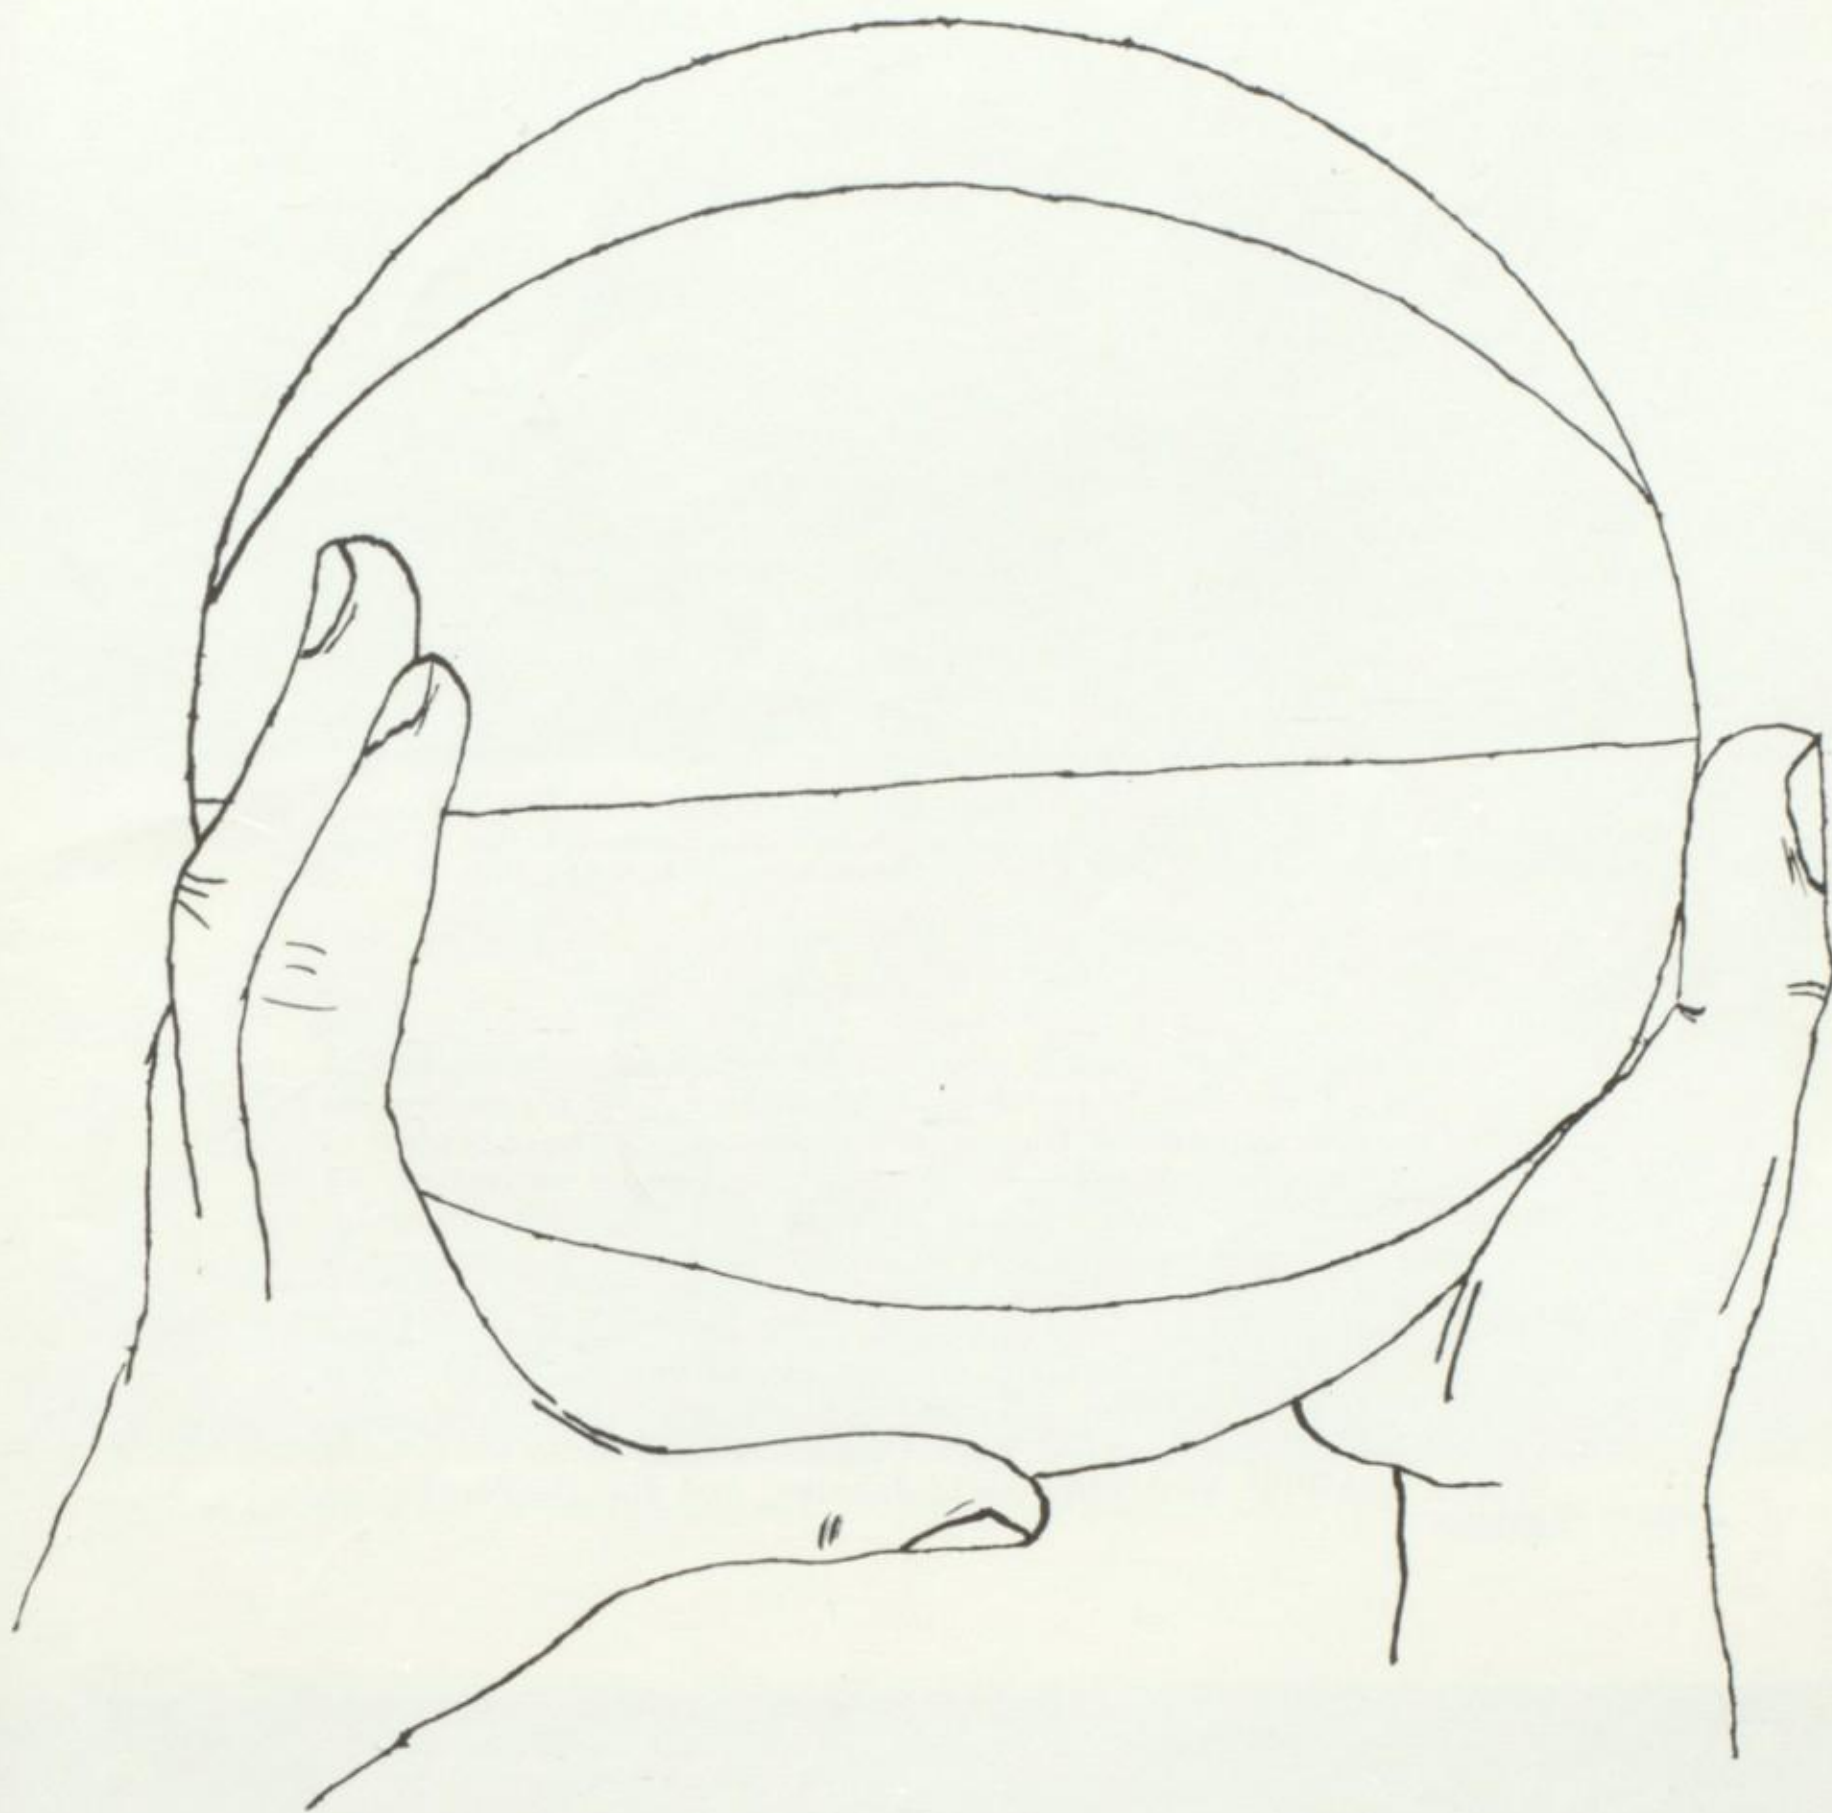

This year the Catskill Public School System was honored with a visit by Mr. Iqbal, a Pakistan educator. Mr. Iqbal visited our nation as an ambassador of good-will. During his stay in Catskill, many of us were fortunate enough to discuss his nation and its educational system with him.

Busy serving deserts at our spaghetti supper, Charlene Van Vechten and Nancy Jeune do not realize that they are being photographed.

Gretchen Binder and Paul Schneider admire the stuffed animals which were awarded to the most successful magazine salesmen.

One for All, and All for one!

ROW 1: B. Meyer, D. Ryan, D. Holden, D. Templeton, C. Neal, T. Jeune, E. Morelli, J. Warner, E. Winans.
ROW 2: P. Furyk, H. Millspaugh, B. Crapser, D. Jenkins, B. Winans, N. Stark, B. Post, P. Neal.
Standing: Coach Dave Porter, L. Seeley, S. Ford, G. Welsh, R. Smith, M. Kugler, D. Ivery.

The Catskill soccer squad despite four consecutive losses in the beginning of the season swept on to a winning 5-4-1 league record under the able guidance of Coach Porter. Catskill was the only team in the league which managed to break 1st place Heatly's perfect record by tying them 2-2 on their home field. With many lettermen returning, the Cats are a sure bet to be one of the top contenders for next year's C.H.V.L. soccer title.

This year's winning team was led in offense by Don Holden, Dave Ivery, Bill Crapser, Nick Stark, Dennis Templeton, Pete Furyk, and Ron Smith while the strong defensive backs were headed by Mark Kugler, George Quinn, Shep Ford, Charles Welsh, Brian Post, Gary Welsh, and Phil Neal with David Jenkins, and Joe DelVecchio as goalies.

Shep Ford moves in to steal the ball from the Coxsackie player as Carl Neal, Pete Furyk, and C-A's Number 5, Steve Riley, wait for a possible bounce in their direction.

Team Work

Mark Kugler winces as he heads toward his teammates Don Holden and Shep Ford who get set to reverse their directions and dribble up the field.

Shep Ford gets "a good foot" on a short, quick pass to Ron Smith as the Cocksackie players move fast and low — but late.

Dave Ivery crosses to Ron Smith as Bill Crapser backs up the play on the outside.

Shep Ford drives around an opponent for a possible 2 points, while Bill Palmer stands ready to fight for a rebound.

Gary Welsh's shot rebounds off the backboard for 2 points as his teammates prepare to fall back on defense.

The 1965-66 Catskill High Basketball team was responsible for stirring up more excitement than any other Catskill team in the past decade. Spectator support was very high not only from the student body but also from the general public.

Under the very capable coaching of Mr. Franco, the Cats surged through their first 7 games undefeated. At the end of the season, they sported an impressive league record of 11-3 to place them third in the C.H.V.L., and to give them a 12-4 overall record.

Such reliables as Shep Ford, Bill Palmer, and George Quinn, the second leading scorer in the Capital District Area, formed the backbone of the team.

Catskill's future looks bright with Dan Hitchcock, Gary Welsh, Dave Ivery, and Carl Neal returning next year to lead the attack.

George Quinn pulls down a rebound and then looks to the outside for start of a possible fast break.

STANDING: T. McCarthy, T. Vincent, R. Buck, J. Guldenstern, J. Ivey, G. Quinones, B. Schmidt, G. Roe, W. Russell.

Catskill High's Junior Varsity provided many thrilling moments for the spectators.

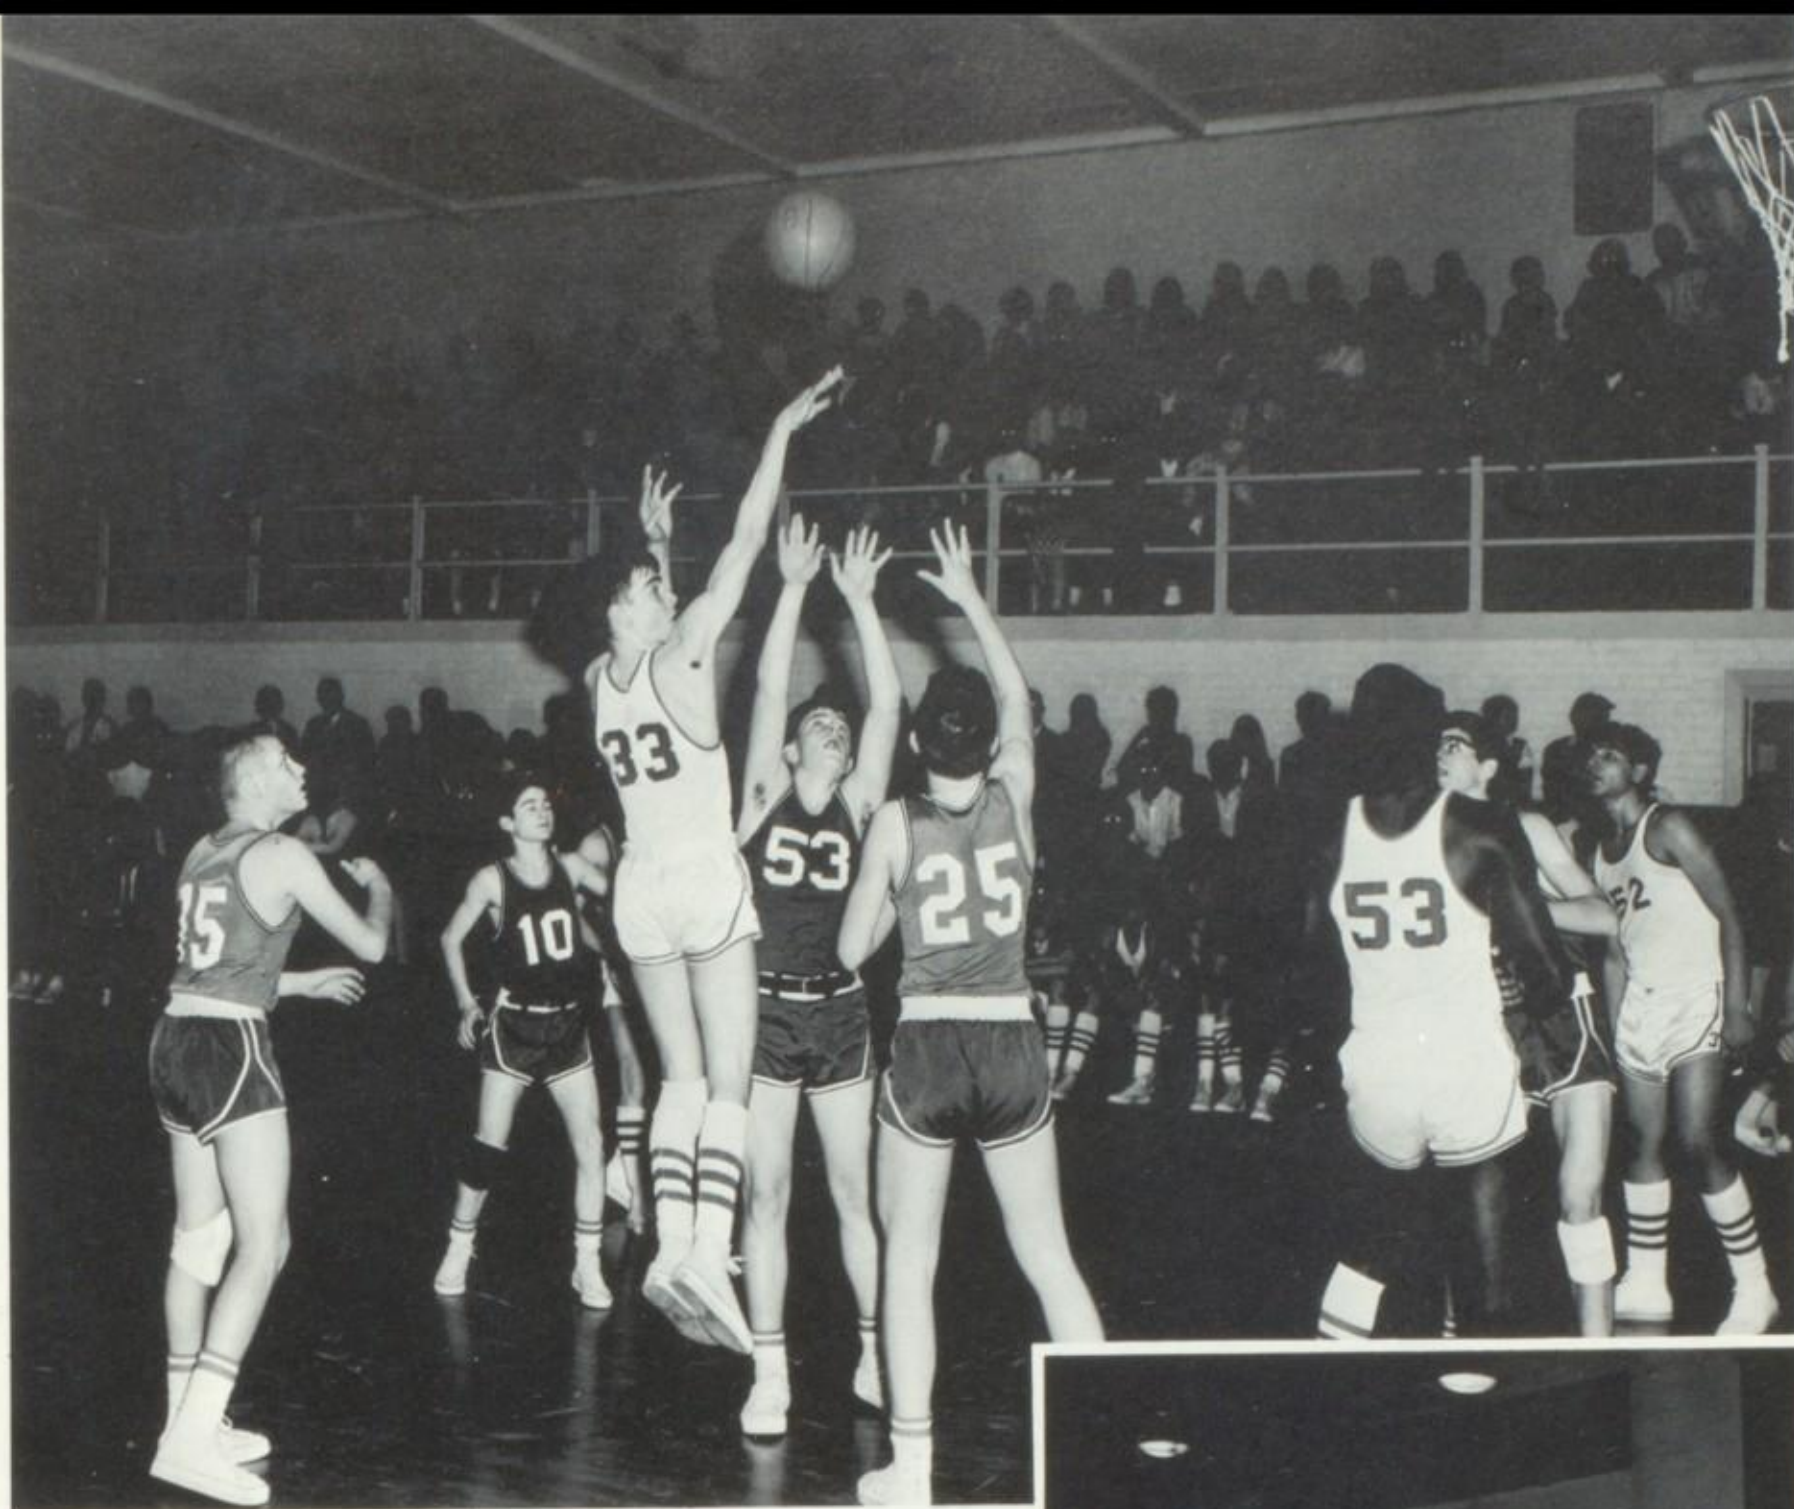

Under the capable coaching of Mr. Ferriolo, the J. V.'s combined a tight defense with a fast moving offense.

Led by such standouts as John Saxe, Joe Ivery, Warren Russell, and George Quinones the team showed tremendous drive in attaining their 14-2 record.

Jackie Ivey jumps higher than his opponent.

ROW 2: B. Post, W. Kitchen, N. Hamm, R. Jenkins, J. Saxe, N. Early, M. Profera, Manager.

The baseball team of 1965 under the very capable coaching of Mr. Stickles had some very fine players and one of the tightest defensive infields in the league; this was lead by Nate Hamm and Carl Neal. The pitching was also in fairly good shape with Bill Palmer and Dan Hitchcock. The hitting was led by Wayne Kitchen with a 349 batting average. With the return of most of these players and many other fine ballplayers, the 1966 team should finish at the top.

"Whoa! I can't look," rightfielder Joe Del Vecchio seems to be saying to second baseman Nate Hamm.

ROW 1: R. Buck, H. Vipler, M. Katz.
ROW 2: T. Wade, C. Welsh, W. Beck, Mr. Capobianco.

In 1965, Catskill High's Tennis Team started off with five regular players returning. The team ended the season with a fine 7 victories and 7 defeats.

Under the able direction of Mr. Capobianco, the boys on the team gained a great deal of experience. Since the majority of the players on the team were freshmen and sophomores, the team looks forward to many great seasons.

Ricky Buck lets loose a perfect serve.

ROW 1: K. Berry, J. Roe, R. Fried, P. Cone, T. Vincent.
ROW 2: Mr. Franco, F. Guterman, F. Egger, G. Jones, B. Crowe.

According to the standards set by Catskill High School in golf, this could well be considered an off year. Our 4 wins, 9 losses and one tie seem quite poor after coming from three straight league titles. Under the coaching of Mr. Franco, our team had spirit but never seemed able to get off the ground. For the future, the picture looks much brighter. Only losing one starter from last year, our team looks ready to move.

Brian Crowe looks on while Greg Jones studies the shot.

ROW 3: R. Caldwell, B. Crapser, E. Hodor, B. Brandow, Mr. R. Hauley

The 1965-66 wrestling team did not show too well in the win-loss column with a 4-9 record. Although there were many "rookie" grapplers on the team, they proved themselves worthy opponents in every match.

This year's team was led by Joe Del Vecchio who compiled a season's record of 10-0. Mr. Hauley, our new coach, looks to the future with such experienced wrestlers as Bill Crapser, Nick Stark, Bill Brandow, and Charlie Goggins.

Although the boy's athletic program dominates the sports' scene at C.H.S., the girls are also actively engaged in an intramural sports program. Under the coaching of Mrs. Bear, the girls participate in volleyball and basketball during the fall and winter, while in the spring tennis and softball are their main interest. When playing other schools, the girls are known as "The Catskill Kittens."

The National Honor Society is an organization made up of students who have excelled in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character. Once, during the school year new members are inducted in an impressive ceremony held as a special assembly program. Members must continue to excel in those qualities for which they have been honored.

This year the Society has planned to initiate a tutoring service for some of our fellow students. Through this and similar activities and services, we hope to set a good example for others.

During the February induction, eight students were tapped into the society. The Seniors were Bill Conine, Kathy Lennon, and Leslie Van Duesen.

The five Juniors were Joseph Del Vecchio, Susan Godfried, Richard Jenkins, Kathleen Panek, and Victor Smith.

The members of this club assist Mrs. Miller in the Library and try to convey to the students the need for reading.

Every year the Library Club has a Book Bazaar. A percentage of the money made from this sale is used to finance the club trip in the spring. So you see, we have fun too!

This year the Library Club elected as its officers: Nancy Ward, Secretary; Dorothy Adsit, Vice President; Linda Trevail, Treasurer; Vicky Wase, President.

Our duties, as members of this organization, are to read the announcements over the P.A. system each day, introduce assembly speakers, and help put on the Christmas assembly.

One of the activities of the Speech Club was an assembly in the spring. This assembly provided for a speaking contest with money prizes. Many rewarding experiences can be had through membership in the Speech Club.

The Echo, under the capable direction of Mr. Sharkey, is the Catskill High School quarterly publication produced by the student body to encourage creative writing. According to their individual interests, students may join one of the five staffs which comprise the entire Echo Organization. These staffs include Art, Business, Literary, Feature and Distribution.

For several years our magazine has won awards in inter-scholastic high school magazine competitions. Granted, the competition with other schools is great; but the talented writers at C. H. S. are even greater!

This year the Student Council, under the capable guidance of Mr. Stickles, has had a very busy year. Our annual Welcome Dance held in September, was a great success. We continued our sale of basketball passes as in past years and provided basketball guides to seat the spectators at the games. The Save-the-Children Federation drive collected a large amount of clothing to send to Appalachia. In December, the Santa's Helpers again gave up free time to collect money for food baskets that were distributed at Christmas. This year's officers: Bill Conine, President; Leslie Van Deusen, Vice-President; Linda Benfatto, Secretary; and Valerie Pereira, Treasurer, wish next year's officers success in all they endeavor.

Each year as Christmas draws near, Santa's Helpers, led by various members of the Student Council, look to the public for monetary contributions. The money collected is used to purchase Christmas dinners for the needy families in Catskill. Pictured to the left are Joe Del Vecchio, Fred Guterman, Greg Jones, and Steve Webster, four of our enthusiastic volunteers.

Mr. Stickles, Student Council advisor, and Roy Moon are shown displaying one of the "famous" gymsuits in hopes that they will promote the sale of the functional outfits.

Joe Del Vecchio and Steve Webster urge others to participate in Bundle Days, a worthy cause which donates used clothing to the less fortunate.

The group of Guides, under the competent direction of Mr. Eden, is one of the oldest service organizations of C. H. S. This organization was established to direct traffic between periods, to guide visitors through the school, to run errands, to seat students for assemblies, and to maintain order during fire drills.

Candidates for guides are nominated by the faculty and chosen by their fellow guides. They are selected on the basis of their dependability, leadership, loyalty and scholastic record.

The two Senior captains, Bill Palmer and Laurel Haines, check before each class to see that the guides are at their posts.

A guide must live up to a high standard of good conduct and must serve as an example to his fellow students.

The Ski Club, under the capable direction of Miss Tice, meets ten weeks out of the winter to go skiing at Hunter. Getting up at 6:30 Saturday morning may seem a bit early but once the skiers reach the slopes, their efforts prove worthwhile. Following their lesson, each skier is allowed two hours of free skiing. Besides being extremely enjoyable, skiing is a great sport for those who wish to keep physically fit.

Commerce Club

D. Adsit, J. Desco, S. Young, V. Travell, V. Wase, L. Trevail, L. Christman, Mrs. Mower, J. Gulle, N. Ward.

Commerce Club is a very active and worthwhile organization in Catskill High School. Because the members type all the material for the yearbook and Echo publications, the club can very definitely be considered a service organization. Its members usually intend to enter the secretarial field and can obtain valuable experience by participating in this club.

Banking

Banking, under the direction of Mrs. Mott, is a weekly activity in Catskill High School. This club makes it easier for each individual student to place his money in the bank and to learn the value of regular savings. The banking organization is a very beneficial and vital part of our lives at Catskill High School.

The Music Goes

In the Spring of 1965, the Catskill High Concert Band was honored to be asked by the authorities of the World's Fair to participate in a public performance. This proved both cultural and entertaining for all who attended and was the highlight of our year.

The band this year was off to a great start when it had the honor of playing at the Eastern States Exposition held in West Springfield, Massachusetts. This year the band is under the leadership of Mr. Gangi, our new director. JoAnn Connors is president, Kathy Panek, secretary and Gretchen Binder, librarian.

The Christmas Concert with the Senior High Chorus and our annual Spring Concert, "Bandtasia", kept us hard at work. This year for the third time we also presented the "Pops" Concert.

We hope to repeat our performance of last year by again earning an "A" rating in grade six at the music festival.

This year, the Senior Chorus consists of approximately 116 students. Under the competent and skillful direction of Mr. Robert Aldrich, the chorus participates in several assemblies and concerts throughout the year. Among these are the annual English assembly, the Spring and Christmas concerts. Also, each year the chorus presents the public with an operetta. Past performances include "The Fortune Teller" and "Naughty Marietta."

As another activity the chorus represents C. H. S. at the New York State School Music Association. At this music festival the chorus is rated on the music they sing.

The main ambition of the chorus is to present good music and bring enjoyment to people of C. H. S. and the public.

Naughty Marietta

The entire cast assembled for the finale. All the intricate details of the complex plot were solved, resulting in a happy ending for the players and an enjoyable evening for their audience.

Pat Schermerhorn as Adah and Bob Federico as Etienne seem to be having an important conversation while Nancy Jenkins and Eldon Teetsel starring as Marietta and Captain Richard Warrington look as if they are having a disagreement of some kind. Roger Lane as the Town Crier must be looking for his glasses.

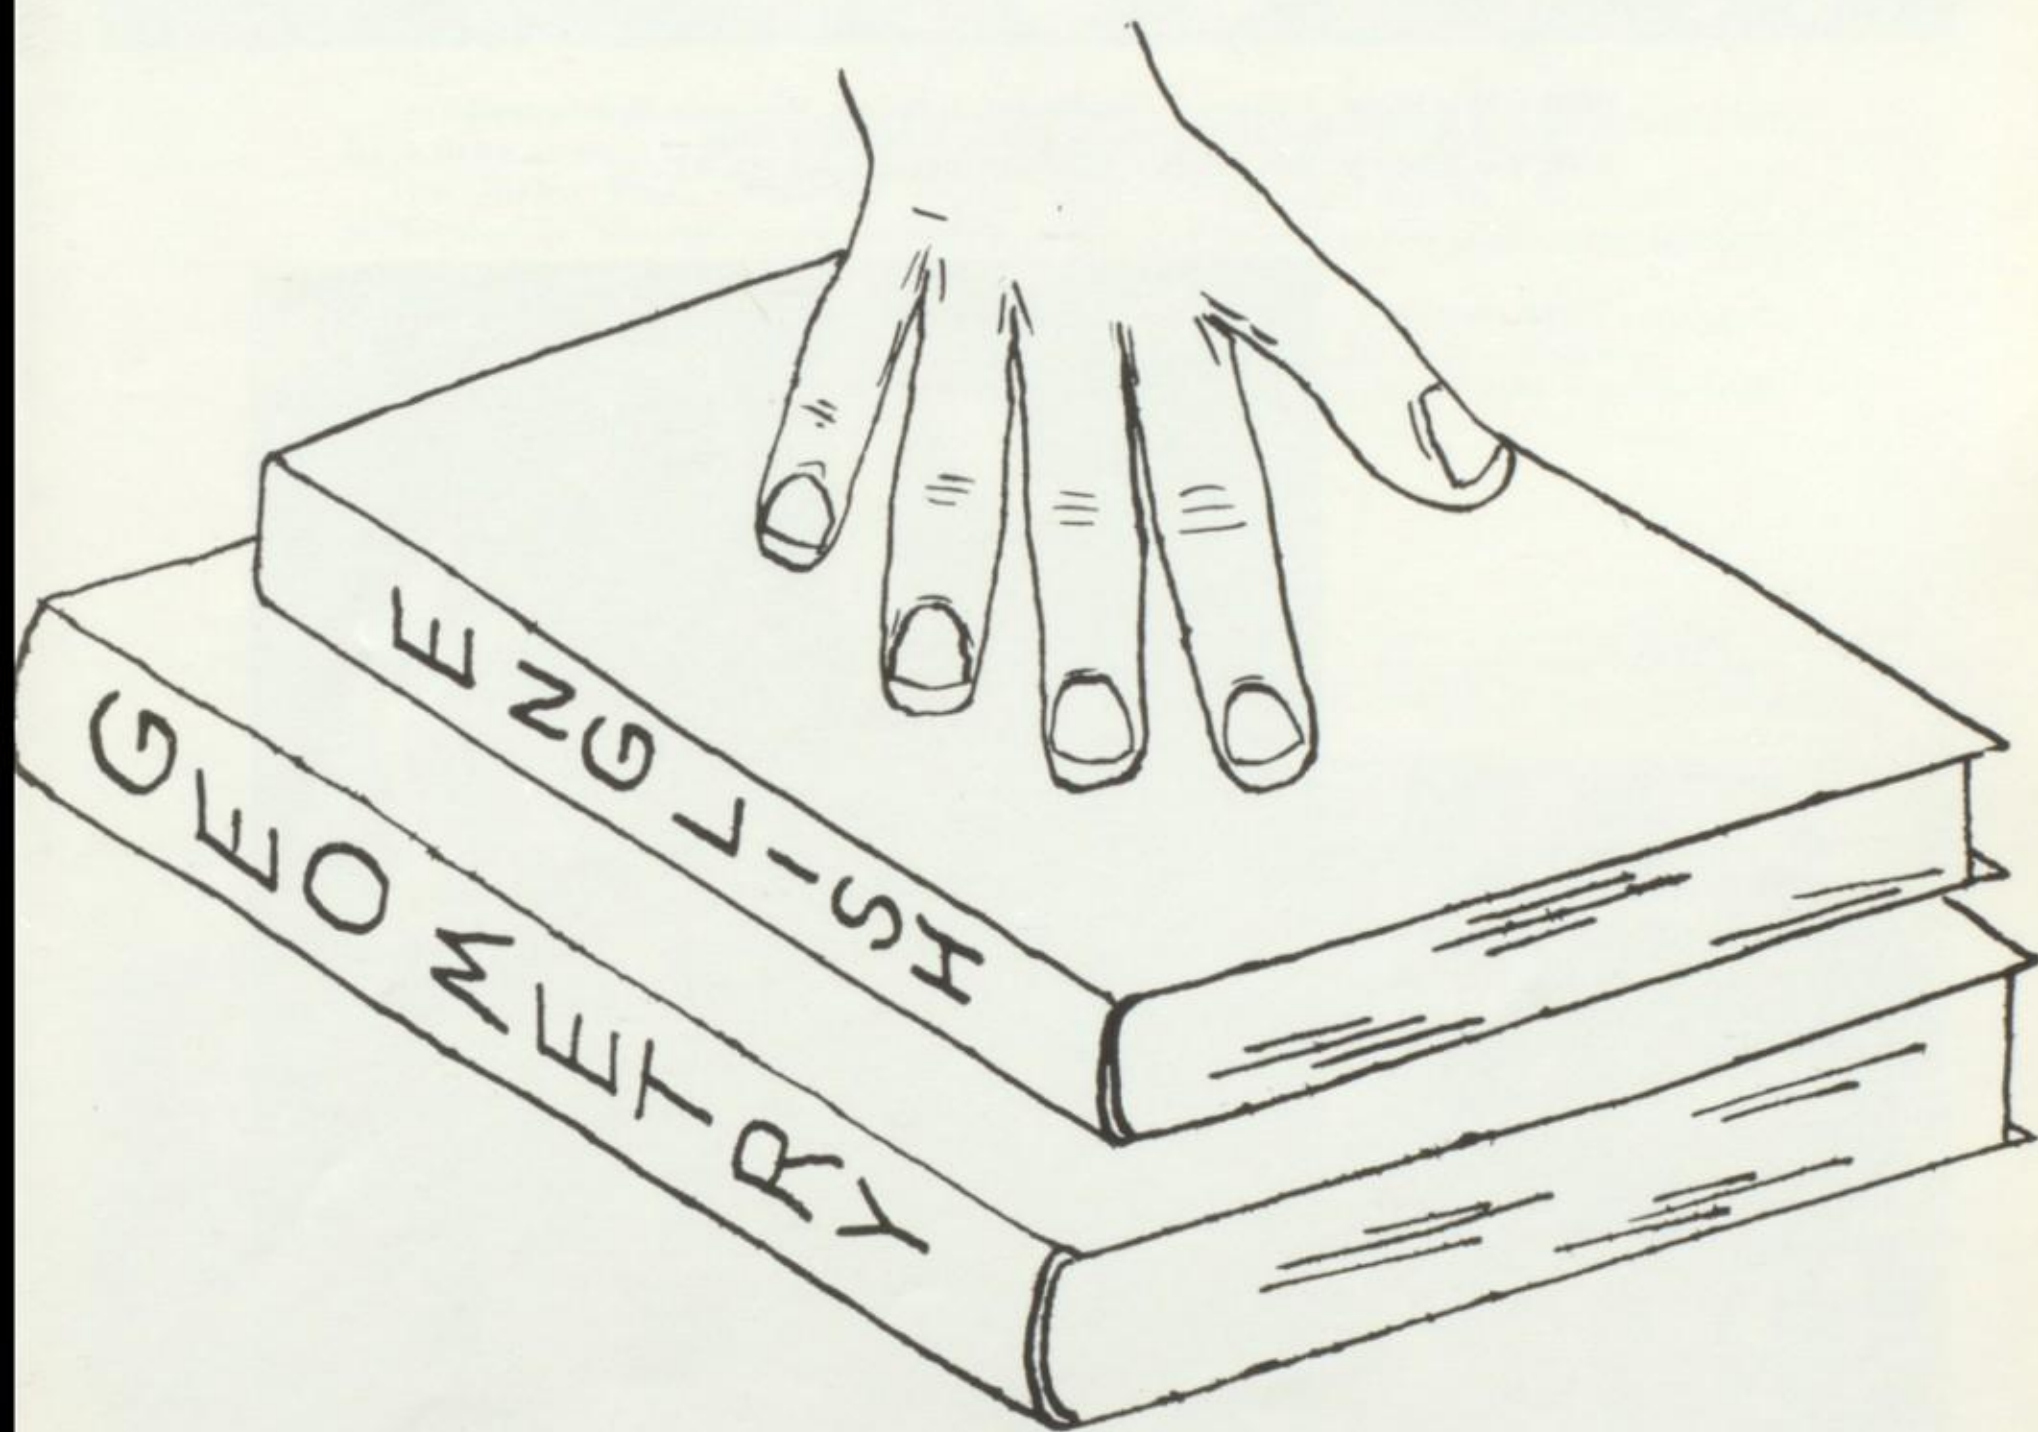

Nanette (Shelley Roe), Felice (Kathy Hommel), and Fanchen (Tina Morelli) are listening to Sir Harry Blake (Tom Zinnanti) tell stories about his many encounters with pirates. Silas (Richard Jenkins) is down on his knees trying to persuade Lizette (Linda Benfatto) to give him some gold to buy tobacco.

The governor (Bill Conine) is having problems and Florenze (Dan Christiana) is careful not to drop the umbrella. Rudolfo (Greg Jones) and Graziella (Marian Aldrich) are discussing Marietta as the Indian (Greg Brandow) looks on with interest.

Our Junior year has kept us busy constantly. As well as having full schedules, we have been at work with many time-consuming extra-curricular activities.

The Junior Play, "Chicken Every Sunday," directed by Mr. Myshrall was performed in November with Joe DelVecchio and Joya Jimenez playing the leading roles.

The Junior Prom, held in the month of May, was also a success. The evening of the crowning of our King and Queen was an exciting event for many students.

All these endeavors have helped us to look forward to our Senior year in high school.

The Sophomore Class started the year very successfully with the usual "Hill Billy Hoe Down" under the direction of Mr. Capobianco. The class of '68 continued the tradition of having a band at the dance. The dance featured a dance contest and a sample of discotheque dancing.

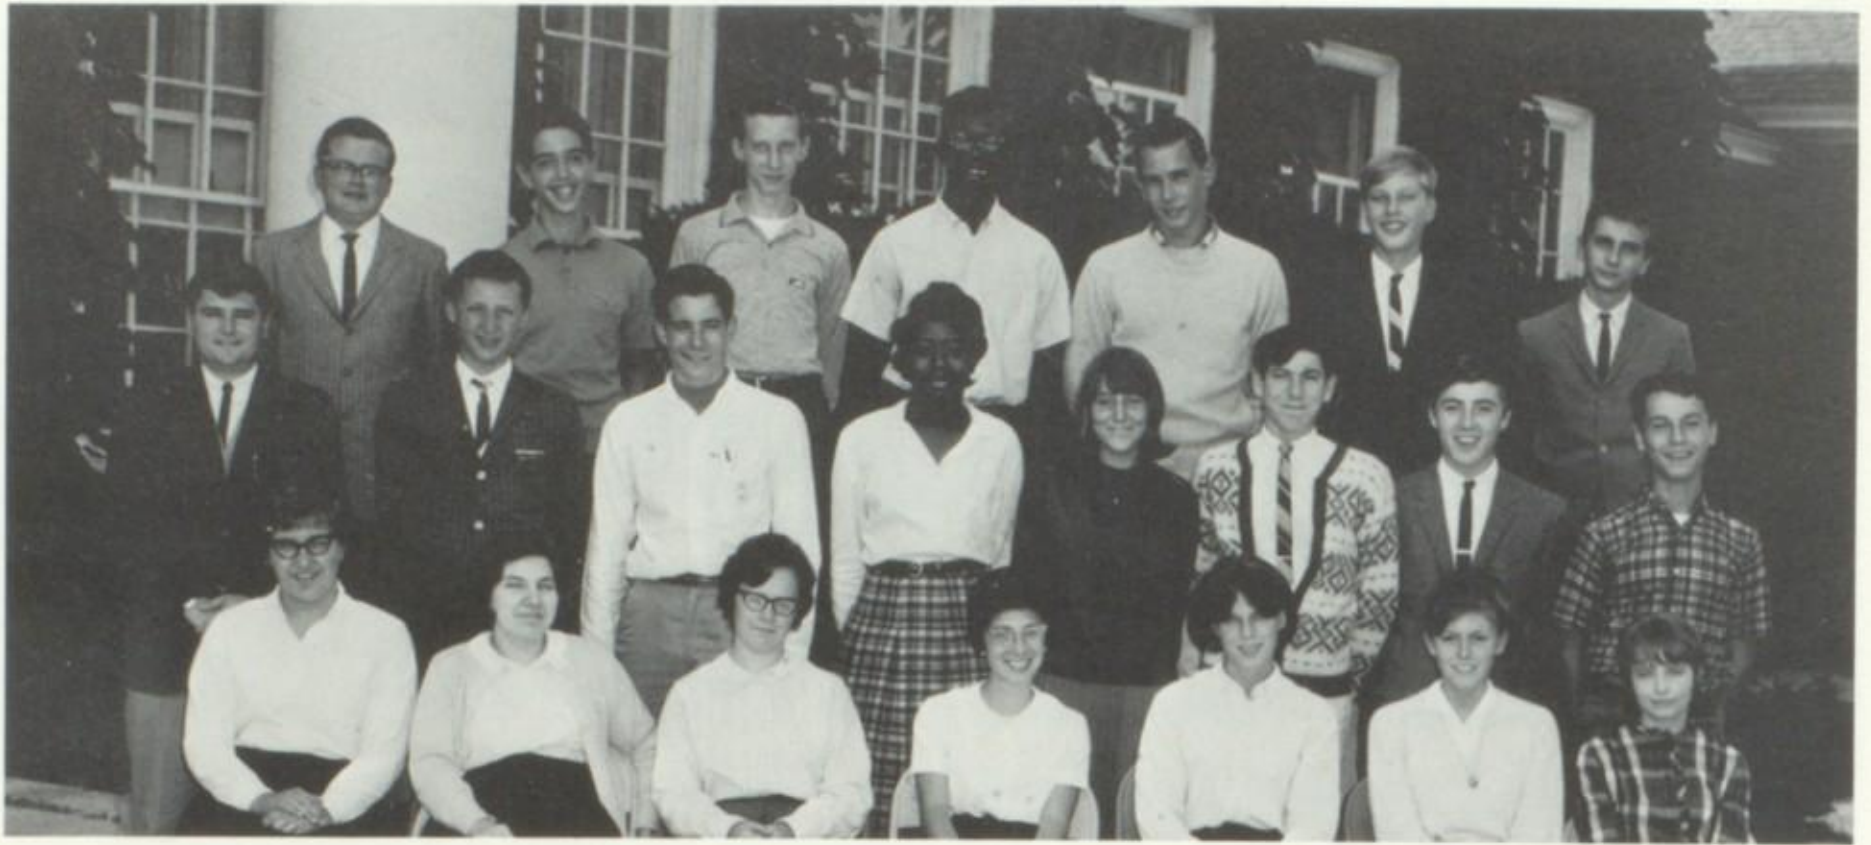

The Sophomore Class has planned a new type dance for the spring, once again bringing a new band with new music.

Besides using dances as our key to social gatherings, we have participated in many sports and activities including tennis, basketball, Speech Club and the Student Council.

The Class of '68 chose Gene Roe as treasurer; Ricky Buck as vice-president; Tinny Jones as secretary; and Jon Saxe was named our president. Mr. Capobianco, our advisor, looks on.

The freshman class is now back to the somewhat strange hours of 8 to 3. Electing officers was first on the agenda for the class. David Jenkins was elected president; Bruce Felter, vice-president; Frank Daley, treasurer; and Gail Holdridge, secretary. The freshman class, with Mr. Karl as the advisor, planned two dances, one in the fall, the "Halloween A' Go-Go," and one in April. As freshmen we enjoyed joining new clubs and participating in high school activities. We hope that with hard work our high school years will be successful.

Mr. Karl, Advisor; Bruce Felter, Vice President; David Jenkins, President; Frank Daley, Treasurer; Gayle Holdridge, Secretary.

Now that we have entered our second year at Catskill High School, as eighth graders, we feel more sure of ourselves. We remember the problem we had last year with our lockers and can now laugh about it all. Our main dislike this year is the split-sessions. Although we had them last year, we find going to school all afternoon can become a problem, especially after we were just getting used to having the whole afternoon to ourselves. One thing we all notice is the increase of homework. Well, we are now able to find our way around without difficulty and are looking forward to our remaining years here. Although we have long awaited becoming high school students, we leave junior high with many fond memories.

We all looked forward to our first year at Catskill High School and once it came, it seemed to go all too fast. Most of us had difficulty when it came to our lockers and the changing of classes. Now after conquering these things we all feel more grown up. We have all come to enjoy the dances and although most of us can't dance, we find that just being together and making a try of it is great fun.

This has been our first year of split-sessions and everything is very different. But these things just make the year that much more challenging. We are now all very proud to say that we are a part of this school. It was an exciting and interesting year, one that we are sure to remember.

Administration

TO THE CLASS OF '66

You are graduating in a year that is filled with world turmoil and strife as well as world progress. Every wrong in the world is a challenge for graduates with vision. Every need of the world is a task for someone. Each of you has a mission which must be fulfilled during your lifetime. If this mission goes undone, the world may be weaker as a result. I feel that you have been guided during your high school years to see the needs of the world, and to recognize your own abilities to meet these needs. The future of our world rests in your hands and those of all the other 1966 graduates.

It is my hope that we have educated you not only to KNOW what you didn't KNOW but also to cause you to DO what you might not DO.

Please accept my thanks for the privilege of having known you, and for all the cooperation and help that you have extended to me during the years I have been your Superintendent.

Arthur H. Hartmiller

Our Unsung Heroes

Mr. Jack Guterman, Mr. Everett Pelham, Mr. William Hartman, Mr. Clyde Jones, Mr. Eugene Somers

MR. FRANK COOKE
Clerk of the Board

We seniors, as well as the entire student body in the Catskill Public School System, would like to express our great appreciation and gratitude to our Board of Education.

Along with keeping the schools repaired and in good condition, the Board makes a study of the curriculum to keep it up-to-date. This efficient group prepares the complex budget for the three schools and presents it to the voters for their approval.

Our Senior Class would like to sincerely thank the Board members for the many tedious hours they spent in devoted service to our school system.

JOHN M. PANEK
Principal

In order to express our admiration for Mr. Panek, we, the Senior Class of 1966, have taken the privilege of altering the traditional message from the principal by making it a message of appreciation and tribute to the principal.

Upon entering the Junior High School we made our first encounter with Mr. Panek, but did not come to know him well until we became Freshmen. As Freshmen we eagerly began our high school career and found him always willing to aid us in our many activities. To us, Mr. Panek has been a friend as well as a principal and leader.

We feel that one of Mr. Panek's most outstanding characteristics is his strong desire to be fair and impartial when dealing with the student body and faculty.

Although Mr. Panek does not hold himself aloof from the student body, he has never ceased to set an excellent example of strong morals, upright motives, definite convictions, and perseverance toward which we must strive.

We greatly respect him for what he taught and gave to us. He gave us a sense of responsibility and a strong desire to become worthwhile individuals in our future lives.

Now, as we graduate we would sincerely like to thank Mr. Panek for helping us set our goals in life. We feel that if we can mold our characters to be as strong and definite as his, we will surely be an asset to the growth and proper development of our nation.

EVERETT McCARTY
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

In our six years at C.H.S. the senior class has had the pleasure of knowing Mr. McCarty not only as our Assistant Principal, but also as our eighth grade English teacher. His patience, warm smile, and willingness to help has made him a friend whom we all respect and admire. The class of 1966 would like to express their appreciation for all he has done for them. Thank you, Mr. McCarty.

GUIDANCE
ANTHONY VERTUCCI

Mr. Stark, the Senior High Guidance Counselor, has helped us for the past four years in planning our schedules and preparing us for our chosen profession. By now, his office has come to be our "second home". Mr. Stark administers the many educational tests that we must take and spends much valuable time aiding us in finding the college which best suits our needs and desires.

Mr. Vertucci, more often called Mr. "V", was our Economic Life and World History teacher. Having preferred the field of guidance, he is now a full time Junior High Guidance Counselor. He aids Junior High students in deciding what course to prepare for in high school.

I'm sure we will never forget Mr. Stark and Mr. Vertucci, for they have proved to be very helpful and real friends.

In Appreciation . . .

We shall remember Mrs. Wormuth, our co-advisor, as a most understanding individual. The Seniors would like to thank her for organizing many of our activities and for always being willing to listen to our many problems.

Although she was able to be our advisor only our Freshman year, we feel that Mrs. Larsen gave us that spark which is necessary if one is to succeed. In our first year of high school, we filled our treasury and had an extremely fruitful year. Without her perseverance and enthusiastic influence, we could not have accomplished so much in four years.

It seems as though during every major crisis there always exists an understanding and sturdy someone upon whom all can rely. To us, that someone was Miss Faxon. We would like to thank her for all the support she rendered at sports functions, for all the time she gave toward our Prom, and for all the effort she made to make "Row A: this year's Student Council officers.

We shall never forget our dedicated and talented play director, Mr. Myshrall. We can honestly say that without him a fond memory would have been a mere dream.

The End . . . and the Beginning . . .
